Services

Vedadrama India Pvt. Ltd. offers services in psychodrama education and coaching /supervision as described on www.vedadrama.com. The main psychodrama education is called: Executive Education. It is based on the Humanistic Psychodrama Approach. Psychodrama education is a single or sequence of small groups seminars with qualified trainers to improve business performance and work-life-balance.

Participants' mental health

Psychodrama improves mental, emotional and physical health. In few cases Psychodrama will not be helpful during study of psychodrama for the participants. Therefore: Participants assure in oral and writing, that they are of sound mental, emotional health and are presently not undergoing psychiatric medical treatment while subscribing to the program.

Sound emotional health can include, that there had been times in life, when the participants used any form of psychotherapy and counseling for oneself to understand oneself better and for self-inquiry. This is even recommended, as Psychodrama education included to capability and wish to explore into one's own emotions.

Vedadrama India Pvt. Ltd. does not give psychiatry counseling and services.

The participants will take over own responsibility for his/her own mental and emotional growth, soundness and health at all times during education. Vedadrama India Pvt. Ltd. and the trainers/coaches will not be liable for health-related costs.

Confidentiality

All information on other parties/participants the trainers and the participants get through attending Vedadrama India Pvt. Ltd. seminars and education are strictly to be kept confidential. It is a legal offense not to oblige to that.
